TrumpElon is a meme token project developed on the Ethereum blockchain, created purely for entertainment purposes and promising no intrinsic value or financial return. It encourages community interaction through the “Cosmic Tweet War” concept and offers users an enjoyable experience.

2. Project Purpose and Vision

TrumpElon aims to provide users with a social interaction and entertainment platform under the theme of “Cosmic Tweet War.” This project was developed in response to meme tokens that abuse admin privileges to carry out rug-pull-like events and undermine community trust. Built with a completely transparent and trustworthy design reminiscent of Bitcoin’s simplicity, TrumpElon has no admin privileges and no DAO structure; therefore, no authority exists that could execute rug-pull-like scenarios that would damage community confidence.
